

Press Release

New CEO at Unibased System Architecture, Inc.

Chesterfield, Missouri, April 2, 2008: Effective April 1st, 2008, Lawrence V. Covington has been appointed Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of Unibased Systems Architecture, Inc. (USA). Covington replaces Barry Rundquist who recently resigned for personal reasons.

Covington has been a leader in technological and productivity innovations for healthcare for many years. Covington has been providing executive leadership for Fortune 500 and smaller firms over the years, emphasizing quality, reliability and customer service as alternatives to the status quo of the industry. His mission will be to grow the business, add more innovative product sets, and generally expand the productivity capabilities from other industries into healthcare. Covington is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis.

About Unibased Systems Architecture (USA): Celebrating its 22nd year in the HIT industry, USA's reputation for product quality, reliability, and supporting services has no equal. USA and its products have maintained highest rankings from the KLAS™ independent reporting for the last eight years. USA markets various products which are open, scalable, integrated client/server and web enabled solutions, designed to meet the unique needs of sophisticated enterprise organizations. USA has major solution offerings in the HIT and air travel markets, providing real time production scheduling, human resource, security and financial systems. In the HIT industry, RMS is an integrated solution which schedules and tracks patient resource needs from pre-access through follow-up. RMS also monitors the effectiveness of clinical programs, financial productivity and capacity management. ORMS is an integrated module which addresses OR scheduling, surgeon preferences, suite utilization, materials management, clinical worker training and certification. RMS/ORMS results in significant improvements in physician and patient relations. USA products and services are available through direct sales, marketing partners, value added resellers and system integrators. USA is a private corporation founded in 1986, and is based in Chesterfield, Missouri. For more information, visit www.unibased.com or contact:
